

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, January 19. 1703.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 20.

Warsaw, December 21.

THE Cardinal Primate is come from his Palace at Lowits to this City, where he has resolv'd to continue some time. The Marquess de Bonnac Envoy Extraordinary of France arriv'd here some days before, and is Lodg'd in the same House in which the Marquess du Heron resided. Prince Sapieha Great General of Lithuania is likewise come hither with his Guards, and 'tis said some Regiments of Swedes are following him. 'Tis uncertain when the King of Sweden will be here: his Army marching very slowly, either to avoid fatigue, or in expectation of the return of General Steinbock, whom his Swedish Majesty sent into the Polish Russia, with a Body of Troops, to raise Contributions, which some Palatinats have agreed to Pay. The King of Sweden has offer'd his help, to reduce the Cossacks, who have possess'd themselves of the Fortress of Bialacerkiew, and continue their Ravages in Volhinia and Podolia: but the Poles have refus'd the assistance of the Swedes. Since the breaking up of the Assembly that was held at Thorn, we learn that some Deputies who tarry'd there last, made several Resolutions; but 'tis believ'd they will have no effect, because that Assembly was held at Thorn, which is contrary to the usual Forms; for that several Senators withdrew from it, after entering their Protections against all that should be transacted in it: and for that the Chief Persons of the Republick were not present in it. The Emperor's Envoy and the Czar's Ambassador, do their utmost, the one to incline the Poles to Peace, the other to continue the War: The first Sollicits the King of Poland to set at liberty certain Swedes Prisoners, as a proper means to inspire pacifick Thoughts into the King of Sweden; and 'tis reported that Orders are given for releasing and sending back those Prisoners, with all their Equipage. The latter makes great Complaints of the publishing of some Letters pretended to be intercepted, by which it appears that the Czar his Master excited the Cossacks to revolt; and which he declares to be false, and contriv'd to render that Prince odious to the Poles.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 23.

Warsaw, Jan. 2. The Cardinal Primate has receiv'd a Letter from the Marquess de Torcy, importing that the King of France, his Master, was desirous to know whether the Violation of the Law of Nations in confining his Ministers the Marquesses de Bonnac & du Heron, was done with the consent of the Republick; to the end his Majesty may know to whom he is to address himself for Satisfaction: Together with a notification, that his Majesty had caus'd all the Poles in France to be put under Confinement, for the greater Security of his Ministers.

Hamburg, Jan. 16. They write from Poland, that the Swedish Army is drawing together near Casimir; that the King of Sweden has his Head Quarters at Jasinie; that the Swedes fortifie several Places about Lublin; that they have Plunder'd the little Town of Tyczyn; that the Cardinal Primate intends to pass the Winter in Warsaw; and that he has call'd a general Synod to meet at Warsaw on the 25th.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan. 23.

Thorn, Jan. 1. The Deputies of the Town of Lublin, have been with the King of Sweden, to desire him to moderate the Sum demanded of them for Contributions; but could obtain no redress, probably because there was nothing in their Instructions injurious to the King of Poland. The Imperial Ambassador Count Sinzendorf, has lately had a Conference with the Cardinal Primate; who, 'tis said, will call a Convocation of the Clergy.

Riga, Dec. 28. The Inhabitants of Allaskivz begin to fly from their Dwellings, being inform'd that the Muscovites have got 30000 Sleds together, among which are some made to carry Artillery and Ammunition; whence 'tis evident some Expedition is intended the first hard Frost. A certain Polish Merchant, a Person of Credit, being come higher in 4 Weeks from White Muscovy, reports that he saw 20000 Muscovites pass the River Dnieper near Dniprova; and that the greatest part of them are quarter'd on the Lands of the Sapiehas between the Dnieper and Brezina.

Riga, Dec. 31. We have Advice, by some Russians, that 40000 Muscovites are marching towards Witepsko, to go to Wilda, by the way of Borisow, and joyn Oginski.

Amsterdam, Jan. 22. According to the Advices from Riga of the 4th instant, the Muscovites have pass'd the River Duna and are marching for Poland; and from Coningsberg they write that 40000 Muscovites are arriv'd near Wilda, to assist the King of Poland.

Thorn, Jan. 6. They write from Moscow, that the Czar makes great Preparations to attack Abo the Capital City of Finland.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 20.

They write from Metz of the 12th, that 4 Boats being sent from thence laden with Cordage, Planks, and other Materials fit for making a Bridge, three of them arriv'd at Bonn; where the Bridge is repair'd, and new Precautions taken to preserve it: the 4th Boat was stop'd at Coblenz. The King of Spain has made Collonel La Croix (the famous Party Leader) Governor of Vianden in the Dutchy of Luxemburg; who has already convey'd into Bonn some Troops, with Bombardiers and Grenadiers. The Enemy having drawn together a Body of 4000 Men to attack Homburg, before it should be put into a State of Defence, a Battallion of the Queen's Regiment that was in it retir'd to Bitsche. The Enemies have made no IncurSIONS into that Country, since the Sarre is guarded by our Troops from its Mouth to Saralbe. The Enemy being withdrawn from about Traerbach, the Passage thither is open. The Hussars have made Excursions as far as Treves, but without Success.

Paris, Jan. 20. One of the King's light Frigates with 80 Men on Board, was cast away in the late Storms on the Coast of Bayonne, together with 12 or 13 French Merchant Ships.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan 23.
Cologne, Jan. 19. Last Tuesday Night the Toll-House, (which some Years ago was built by our Elector, without the Port of St. Severin, notwithstanding the City protested against the same,) was burnt by a Party of our Garrison; for that a pack of Spies and others of evil fame, us'd to take Harbour in it, and inform the French of the Designs of the Confederates: there was found in it a good Quantity of Provisions, which was pack'd up to be convey'd to Bonn. On Saturday last the Attack of the Castle of Saffenburg was given over, notwithstanding General Somerfield was before it with 500 Men; because the Bombardiers and Canoniers could not do any execution on the Place by reason of a high Hill that stood in their Way; so that of 15 Bombs that were thrown, but 2 or 3 had any Effect: There may be 70 or 80 French in that Castle.

Liege, Jan. 19. The Enemy's Parties have attempted to Seize and Plunder the Boat that usually passes between this City and Maestricht; but Yesterday one of those Parties of 35 Men was met with, between this Place and Visit; 5 of which were Kill'd on the place; and 23 taken Prisoners and brought in hither, 3 of which being Deserters are like to be hang'd.

Falmouth, Jan. 14. This day came in here the Happy Return of London, who on the 11th instant met off the Island of Scilly a French Privateer of 16 Guns and 110 Men; the Happy Return had 16 Guns and 32 Men, and fought her for 4 hours, and kept the French from Boarding her, till Capt. Wills, his Mate, and the Boatwain were kill'd, after which she was oblig'd to yield to the French. The next day she was retaken by a Flushing Privateer, and now is brought in hither.

Plimouth, Jan. 15. Yesterday sail'd Her Majesty's Ship the Medway a Cruizing; came in the Alexander Galley, the Ann Galley, the Dragon, and the Mary, all of London bound for Lisbon: The Timber-Wharf of Stockholm for St. Ubes; and several Dutch Doggers for Ireland and Portugal.

Dartmouth, Jan. 15. Yesterday came in here the Catharine of London, bound for Lisbon.

Comes, Jan. 16. On Thursday and Yesterday arrived here the Downes Fleet, and other Dutch Ships from Holland; the Wind coming North-east we expect the Fleet at Spithead and the Ships outward-bound will Sail. This day a Flushing Privateer brought in here a French Prize of 250 Tun, of and for Havre de Grace, Laden with Salt.

Harwich, Jan. 16. Yesterday came in the Pacquet Boat from Holland, who in her passage met a French Privateer of 8 Guns and 6 Patereroes who fired upon her, but by favour of a Fog she got clear of her, with only two Men wounded.

Deale, Jan. 17. Yesterday sail'd the Trumball-Galley to the Westward. Remaining of the Outward-bound Merchant Ships, The William, the Two Brothers, both for Barbadoes; The Queen and Prince, for Jamaica; Holden Frigate for Faro: Spy Brigantine, Lassels Frigate, Guinea Frigate, Bridgewater, and Rainbow, for Guinea; The Crown Storeship for Plimouth; The John and William, and the Dispatch for Lisbon.

LOST on the 18th Instant, from His Grace the Duke of O'man's House in St. James's Square, a Diamond George, consisting of about Eleven Diamonds pretty large, and the Ring that holds it set round with small Diamonds. If the same (broken or whole) be offer'd to be Sold or Pawn'd, it is desired that it be stop'd, and that Notice thereof be given to His Grace's Steward, who will immediately Pay Fifty Pounds for the whole, or proportionably for any Part.

* * * Notwithstanding it is Industiously reported in Southwark, and other Places in and about this City, That Mr. John Egerton, a Person well known in Common-Council, and one of the Candidates for the Office of Chamberlain, hath declined Standing for the same; This is to certify, That the said Report is false and without Ground, being spread on purpose to weaken his Interest on the day of Election.
